Employment and Development Coach

Do you care about making a difference?

We are looking for an enthusiastic Employment Coach to join our friendly team and help our small nature-based charity support adults with enduring mental health difficulties.

The Employment Coach plays a vital role in helping services users develop skills, grow in confidence and discover opportunities to live a more meaningful life.

This role entails:

- motivating and supporting service users to effectively engage in activities and opportunities which help them achieve their goals in their journey towards mental, physical and social wellbeing.
- coaching and supporting service users to re-enter society, education and training, volunteering and employment.
- helping service users to overcome problems with benefits and other entitlements.
- developing our outreach and community involvement to ensure service users are well prepared and supported to move on from the service with independence and confidence.

This role is 20 hours per week over 3 days (Monday, Tuesday and Thursday).

Salary £22,500 - £24,500 FTE depending on experience (Pro rata £12,860 - £14,000), with option to include pension.

You will have previous experience in more than one of these areas: mental health; working with vulnerable people, coaching, working in the charity sector, education or mentoring. Good local knowledge would be an advantage.

We seek a highly motivated, well organised multi-tasker who is able to take ownership to deliver positive outcomes, work with a range of strategies, as part of a team, and with a caring, confident approach.

For more information, a job description and an application form please e-mail rootandbranch@btconnect.com. Application deadline: 16th October 2022. Applications by email only please. CV's will not be accepted.
